Arrival and departure
Queen Alia International
Airport Amman

Arrival Queen Alia International Airport Amman

The delegates arrive to Amman. Upon arrival they are greeted with a welcome drink and by our representatives that will assist them with visa and luggage. From here they go directly to the Dead Sea for the overnight stay in the 5* Kempinski Ishtar hotel Dead Sea. The best hotel you can find in this area. Upon check in a welcome drink is served and guests will be escorted to their rooms to freshen up for the dinner.

Dinner will be served at the Obelisk restaurant within the Kempinski Ishtar with views over the Dead Sea. After dinner there's an open bar from 20.00 – 22.00 hrs. for the delegates to mix and mangle.

The Kempinski Hotel Ishtar Dead Sea

Embrace the magic of Jordan's most enchanting setting, where nature and history have so wonderfully conspired. Kempinski Hotel Ishtar Dead Sea is the most ideal venue from which to explore the rich culture and deep history of the area.

This 5-star luxury hotel is situated on the edge of the famous salt lake - the lowest point on earth - and provides uninterrupted views across the vast sea towards the west bank and access to some of the most beautiful scenery in the world.

Experience ultimate relaxation in the superior sea-view rooms of this top-notch venue.

The Sacramento ballroom is a large, elegant event space with a wall of illuminated square panels and several hanging lantern-style lights. Round tables with white tablecloths and white chairs are arranged throughout the room, each with a floral centerpiece.

The Sacramento ballroom

Few words would succeed in capturing the splendour of the surroundings of the Sacramento Ballroom. Elegant and beautiful, the Sacramento Ballroom combines this opulence in style with impressive audio-visual functionality. Half of the ballroom will be allocated for the event.

Conference day

This morning the delegates can go for an early float at the Dead Sea, where-after they head towards the conference room for the day. During the conference all the facilities and equipment will be on hand, as well as technical assistants that will be available throughout the event.

During the conference there will be a constant coffee supply with small delights. Lunch is served at noon.

Tonight, the delegates will enjoy a glorious beach BBQ with entertainment show, including fakirs and belly dancers. Of course, no beach party without a good drink: during the evening there will be an open bar serving a delicious range of cocktails and alcoholic beverages. Overnight stay at the Kempinski Ishtar Dead Sea.

The auditorium

With a seating capacity of 182 guests, our Auditorium is a striking venue. Fitted with the highest standard of fixtures and offering the most advanced audio-visual equipment, one can only imagine how immense performances and ceremonies can truly be.

Every note of music, every theatrical gesture, every special moment will be captured and conveyed spectacularly on this remarkable stage. This venue is ideal for presentations of all kinds.

Wonder of the world and UNESCO world heritage Petra

Experience the magic of Petra...

Wander through the mystic Siq. Wonder about how this immense site was built. The city of Petra, capital of the Nabataean Arabs, is one of the most famous archaeological sites in the world and in remarkable condition.

World wonder Petra and bathing like Herod the Great

Today early morning the delegates will take breakfast and get into the coaches to head south of Jordan, towards Petra. Once arrived they will be greeted by the guides (Russian speaking when requested) for a city tour through the ancient city of Petra. A lunch and drink in the cave bar of the Petra guesthouse will be provided, before heading back towards the Dead Sea for the overnight stay. On the way back north, the delegates are invited to the Ma'in Hot springs, to bathe like the King of Judea: Herod the Great. Relax in the healing and warm swimming-pools, filled by waterfalls. The day is closed off with a luxurious dinner at the hot springs, before heading back towards the Dead Sea for the overnight stay.

A Middle Eastern fairy tale in the oasis of Wadi Ma'in

The hot-springs around the Dead Sea, are just like the Dead Sea itself, known for many centuries for its healing powers. Even Herod The Great, was known to enjoy this area of the world. The warm water directly goes to the swimming pools of this unique venue where you will not only have the opportunity to bathe, but also have a glorious dinner.

Ultimate relaxation

The Ishtar Spa by Resense is the biggest spa of the Middle East and located in the Kempinski hotel. Indulge your senses with a massage or experience ultimate relaxation in one of their salt water pools.

Departure

Today there's free time to relax after a wild and intensive trip through Jordan, to make use of the fantastic spa the Kempinski Ishtar offers or relax at one of the swimming pools before heading back to the airport for departure.

Experience a conference like nowhere else on this world...
